COMPANY OVERVIEW

Jones Glass, LLC, is a District of Columbia-based glass and glazing services provider for project planning, commercial grade product procurement, planning, layout, design and installation for large-scale clients and projects in the Washington, DC, metropolitan area.

With a singular focus on providing complete commercial glass glazing services, the company is positioned to become the industry leader in delivering these services.

Jones Glass specializes in a variety of glass types, including but not limited to: blast resistant, bullet proof, tempered, laminated, annealed glass, heat-treated, and large insulating glass units.

Jones Glass's service offerings include:

- Conference Rooms
- Curtain Wall Erections
- Custom Mirrors for Panel Systems
- Mirrors and Ribbon Wall Systems

All installations by Jones Glass are completed with the utmost precision and accuracy. Jones Glass always strives to adapt to new trends and ever-changing market needs.

Robert Jones founded Jones Glass, LLC, in 2001 after gaining invaluable experience from leading glass and glazing companies from across the nation. During this period, he discovered a passion and deep satisfaction in performing glass installation work on buildings that he could admire and revisit years after completion.

OUR SERVICE VALUE

Jones Glass guarantees the highest levels of quality customer service. No matter the size or scope of the project, Jones Glass team performs with 100% dedication until the project is complete—always on time and within budget.

Jones Glass has worked with DC government, schools, military, residential, and commercial buildings for nearly two decades to deliver exceptional service from the team's collective 75 years of experience within the industry. We have the experience and resources to complete any project, consistently exceeding our clients' expectations.
